

Poczman returns to Piper Alderman

20 October 2008

National law firm Piper Alderman is pleased to welcome Mark Poczman back to the firm as a partner in the Corporate Division. Mark will be based in the Sydney office.

Mark was a senior associate with the firm in the mid 1990s located in the Adelaide office before several years with PricewaterhouseCoopers in Hong Kong and then with PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal in London as a partner. Most recently Mark was a consultant with London firm Field Fisher Waterhouse.

Mark's practice includes commercial law, sales and acquisitions, restructurings, joint ventures and corporate transactions and he has experience working across a range of industries.

Gordon Grieve, Piper Alderman managing partner commented on Mark's return:

"Welcoming Mark back to the firm is a win-win situation for us. Not only do we get an excellent lawyer to boost our corporate practice but as a former member of the firm we know that Mark will be a perfect cultural fit."
