

No Dispute with New Partner Promotion

Friday, 31 July 2009

Piper Alderman is delighted to announce Kim Dewhurst has been promoted to Partner in the Dispute Resolution Division.

Kim joined the firm as an Lawyer in 2004 to work with Michael Lhuede, one of Melbourne's leading insolvency practitioners. She has been an integral part of the firm's Credit Management and Insolvency and Banking and Finance teams since, making a significant contribution to the growth of these practice areas in the Melbourne office and the firm as a whole.

Her experience includes banking and finance engagements concerning security enforcement, debt workouts and recovery and all aspects of insolvency (both personal and corporate) including insolvency-related litigation.

Kim is also involved with key industry bodies as secretary of the Victorian Branch of the International Women's Insolvency and Reconstruction Confederation and a member of the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia.

Piper Alderman's other promotions include Florian Ammer who is promoted to Senior Associate, Dispute Resolution in Sydney and James Nunn who is promoted to Associate, Dispute Resolution in Adelaide.

Piper Alderman Managing Partner, Gordon Grieve said:

"Our promotions further enhance the great strength our firm has in Dispute Resolution and reflect the increased demand for Piper Alderman's litigation and insolvency services.

Kim is a star performer and a great asset to the Melbourne Office's already strong Credit Management and Insolvency team. Her elevation to partner is a direct result of the fantastic contribution she has already made to the success of the firm."
