

Kicking in support for a good cause

Thursday, 30 July 2009

The 2009 Red Kite Celebrity AFL game marked the ninth year of this significant, and just as importantly fun, annual event. The match, which was played at the SCG as a curtain raiser to the Sydney Swans' clash with Port Adelaide, raised funds for Redkite to help support children with cancer and provide financial and educational assistance.

Piper Alderman partner Scott Hay played for the Red team alongside Peter Phelps, Tim Rogers, the Swan's mascot Cyggy and captain Adam Spencer against the White team lead by Merrick Watts and starring Peter O'Brien, Les Hill and Humphrey B Bear.

Scott Hay, who is a veteran of this annual event, said:

"This match is one of the highlights of my year. Redkite is such an important cause and their work makes a huge difference to the lives of so many children and their families living with cancer. It's a privilege to be able to support Redkite in such a fun and hopefully entertaining way".

Unfortunately, Scott was on the losing team this year, with White narrowly defeating Red 3.1 (19) to 2.3 (15).
